

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air an anti-Kerry documentary less than three weeks before a crucial election is so clearly in violation of their charter and all the we as Americans are supposed to hold dear, I am in shock. This is a major media company using propaganda to swing an election. And it appears they are going to get away with it.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This latest example of Corporate self-serving, ends-justify-the means-and-is-okay-in-America-today, must be censured.

I am really tired of the lack of integrity and accountability that seems to pervade the media as well as Corporate America. I can't be the only one who feels my interests are not being served by Sinclair Broadcasting's irresponsible behavior

Thank you.
